THE CONSERVATORY
SCHOOL FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS

SHOWCASE 2021

Erika Frank - Owner and Artistic Director

ERIKA FRANK started her dance career at the age of eleven dancing in The Ballet Theatre of Boston's production of The Nutcracker. She has worked on major motion films and on television including, The Teen Nick Halo Award Show, Taking Woodstock, Going the Distance, and The Forger starring John Travolta.

Erika is a graduate of Dean College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Dance, and is also a graduate of the Dance Teachers Club of Boston's Teachers Training Program. She is a degreed active member in good standing with Dance Masters of America (certified to teach ballet, modern, jazz and tap), and is a professional member of the National Dance Educators Organization. Erika has worked as a judge and master class teacher for the On Point National Dance Competition where she adjudicates performers in all dance genres/levels, and has taught musical theatre master classes for competitive dancers.

Miss Frank has a decade of teaching experience working with children in diverse ages, levels, and genres. Many of her students have gone on to study dance on a collegiate level, and have made names for themselves as performers, choreographers, and teachers in the dance community. Along with dancing and performing, Erika continues to share her passion through teaching and choreographing for students throughout Massachusetts. Her choreography has won numerous awards at both regional and national dance competitions, and her students have been recognized in the competitive circuit through high adjudications and as top scoring soloists. Erika has worked as a choreographer in the musical theatre community for over ten years choreographing musicals such as CHICAGO, ONCE UPON A MATTRESS, HOW TO SUCCEED IN BUSINESS WITHOUT REALLY TRYING, and LEGALLY BLONDE THE MUSICAL (LTOS.)

In 2017, Miss Frank was awarded Best Studio Director at the Access Broadway Competition. She was also named one of the South Shore's Stars Top 40 Under 40 for her excellence in leadership, community development, and entrepreneurial skills. Erika is very thankful and humbled by the opportunity to give back to her native town of Stoughton through the arts, and looks forward to working with the great talents of Stoughton and surrounding towns.

Sarah Palmer – Director of Musical Theatre / Vocal & Acting Instructor Recreational / Intensive / Pre-Professional

SARAH PALMER is a Stoughton native and a graduate of New York University's Masters program in educational theater. She had been involved in many aspects of theater since she was young, and has performed with community and professional theaters since her start. Sarah received her bachelor of science from Suffolk University in theater performance. During her time at Suffolk, Sarah studied dramatic arts and musical theater history at Regents College in London.

After college, she received her masters from New York University. Sarah spent a semester in Dublin, Ireland taking part in a community engaged theater outreach program. During her time in New York, she worked as a production assistant for the Broadway World web series "Submissions Only". In addition to teaching, Sarah has performed on stage in original musical and dramatic works in both New York City and Ireland, as well as many mainstream musicals in the Boston area.

Sarah is on the board of directors for Little Theater of Stoughton and is currently the performing arts director and director of development at St. John the Evangelist school in Canton.

Liam Fitzpatrick– Ballet, Jazz, and Modern Instructor Intensive / Pre-Professional

LIAM FITZPATRICK is a dancer, choreographer, and teacher from the Boston area. Liam holds a B.A. in Dance Performance with a concentration in Pedagogy from Mercyhurst University. During his training, Liam has been honored to work with artists from the New York City Ballet, Ballet West, Pilobolus, MOMIX!, The Paul Taylor Dance Company, The Forsythe Company, and Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre. He has also studied heavily in commercial styles.

Liam is also the co-founder and resident choreographer of 5124 Productions, a production company focused specifically on the creation of cinematic dance works.

Timothy Quinlan– Acting Instructor
Recreational / Intensive / Pre-Professional

Timothy Quinlan - is currently waiting for Broadway to reopen so he can resume his role in the revival of "Caroline, or Change" at Studio 54. His long career has seen every bow from the first to the last on every size stage all over the world. Credits include: Jersey Boys (4 companies, over 1000 performances) , Motown (West End), Titanic (World Tour), and the original Broadway version of Footloose (when he was a wee lad). His production company Cornelius and Barnaby Productions has produced several films, including the latest "Five Lock Down" which will appear in the Online@theSpaceUK's summer festival. He resides in London.

Nick Silva – Lyrical / Contemporary / Hip-Hop / Acrobatics
Recreational/ Intensive / Pre-Professional

NICK SILVA is a Boston born, dancer and performer currently living between NYC and Boston. At a very young age Nick found a drive and passion for dance that took him to places he couldn't even imagine. Nick has trained extensively with some of today's most sought after choreographers such as Dana Foglia, Rhapsody James and more in Jazz, Contemporary, Hip Hop, and Ballet. Nick can be seen performing in a number of TV shows and films such as, Glee, America's Got Talent, Big Brother, Good Morning America, The Wendy Williams Show, and Annie to name a few. He has danced behind artists such as Demi Lovato, Lindsey Stirling, Jennifer Hudson, and Halsey. As well Nick has performed Broadway style and burlesque shows internationally in India, Dubai, Singapore, and Mexico. Most recently Nick had the amazing opportunity to be a featured dancer in Halsey's, "You Should Be Sad" music video. Follow Nick on Instagram @NickBasilSilva to keep up with what he's up to these days!

Kevin Fortin – Vocal Instructor Recreational / Intensive / Pre-Professional

KEVIN FORTIN is a graduate of Ithaca College with a B.M. in Vocal Performance and Music Education. Since graduating, he has performed in many musicals at local community theatres.

Kevin started singing and performing in musicals at the age of 9, and participated in regional, state, and national choruses throughout high school. A licensed music teacher in Massachusetts, he looks forward to inspiring his students through his passion for singing and helping them grow as musicians.

Mckhelen Alcindor – Hip-Hop Instructor Recreational / Intensive / Pre-Professional

Mckhelen Alcindor is a south shore based dancer. At the age of 4, Mckhelen was inspired by the dance moves of Michael Jackson shown on television. In 2012 Mckhelen pursued dance training hip hop and contemporary dance at Jeannette Neill's Dance studio under the mastery of Sarah Katarina Clarke, Static Noyze, Sean Bjerke, Tarikh Campbell, and various other artists. Mckhelen was later granted a chance to dance with various dance teams like Boston Community Dance Project, INC, and The Concept Artists.

Susan Chopourian – Office Manager/ Instructor Recreational / Intensive / Pre-Professional

SUSAN CHOPOURIAN is a dance teacher and choreographer with over 25 years of teaching experience. She has studied with such greats as: Beverly Fletcher, Tommy Relabate, and Sherry Gold, to name a few. Her extensive background includes performing, competing, teaching, and judging along the length of the East Coast. Susan was born into a dancing family. Her mother, Helen, was a professional dancer and award-winning costume maker. Her father, George, was a ballroom instructor and an audio technician.

Currently, residing on the South Shore, Ms Chopourian enjoys teaching all subjects, but has a special affinity for the multi-faceted world of tap dance.

Debi Cocco – Tap Instructor Recreational / Intensive / Pre-Professional

DEBI COCCO is an active member of both professional teacher organizations, dance teachers club of Boston and dance masters of America. She is a former studio owner that teaches at many studios throughout New England. She has been on faculty at many conventions and workshops including dance teacher live conference, Dance Teacher web conference, dancers inc nationals, and many local teaching organizations and has been part of the operations staff for big Apple tapfest. She not only has judged competitions but her students continually achieved many overall and high score awards. She has taught at many dance intensives throughout mass and New Hampshire. She continues her education by attending seminars, classes, and conventions in New York, Vegas, and California. Debi is excited to share her knowledge and passion for dance with her students!
